Representative Plaintiff alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. Representative Jami Zuccherro (“Zuccherro” or “Representative Plaintiff”) brings this class action against Defendant Heirloom Roses, Inc. for its failure to properly secure and safeguard Representative Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ personally identifiable information stored within Defendant’s information network, including, without limitation, their full names and credit card information (these types of information, inter alia, being hereafter referred to, collectively, as “personally identifiable information” or “PII”),¹ and to properly secure and safeguard Representative Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII stored within Defendant’s information network.

2. With this action, Representative Plaintiff seeks to hold Defendant responsible for the harms is caused and will continue to cause Representative Plaintiff and the countless other similarly situated persons in the massive and preventable cyberattack that occurred between or around February 2021 until October 26, 2021, by which cybercriminals infiltrated Defendant Heirloom Roses, Inc.’s inadequately protected network servers and accessed highly sensitive PII and financial information which was being kept unprotected (the “Data Breach”).

3. Representative Plaintiff further seeks to hold Defendant responsible for not ensuring that the compromised PII was maintained in a manner consistent with industry and other relevant standards.

4. While Defendant claims to have detected unusual activity on its network as early as August 12, 2021, it did not immediately report the security incident to Representative Plaintiff or Class Members. Indeed, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members were wholly unaware of

¹ Personally identifiable information (“PII”) generally incorporates information that can be used to distinguish or trace an individual’s identity, either alone or when combined with other personal or identifying information. 2 C.F.R. § 200.79. At a minimum, it includes all information that on its face expressly identifies an individual. PII also is generally defined to include certain identifiers that do not on their face name an individual, but that are considered to be particularly sensitive and/or valuable if in the wrong hands (for example, Social Security numbers, passport numbers, driver’s license numbers, financial account numbers).

1 the Data Breach until they received letter(s) from Defendant informing them of it. Defendant did
2 not begin notifying Class Members until December 2021.

3 5. Defendant acquired, collected and stored Representative Plaintiff's and Class
4 Members' PII and/or financial information in connection with their purchase of Defendant's 5 products/services.

6 6. Therefore, at all relevant times, Defendant knew, or should have known, that
7 Representative Plaintiff and Class Members would use Defendant's networks to store and/or share
8 sensitive data, including highly confidential PII, because Defendant required that they provide this 9 information to purchase their products/services.

10 7. By obtaining, collecting, using, and deriving a benefit from Representative 11 Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII, Defendant assumed legal and equitable duties to those 12 individuals. These duties arise from state and federal statutes and regulations as well as common 13 law principles.

14 8. Defendant disregarded the rights of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members by 15 intentionally, willfully, recklessly, or negligently failing to take and implement adequate and 16 reasonable measures to ensure that Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII was 17 safeguarded, failing to take available steps to prevent an unauthorized disclosure of data, and 18 failing to follow applicable, required and appropriate protocols, policies and procedures regarding 19 the encryption of data, even for internal use. As a result, the PII of Representative Plaintiff and 20 Class Members was compromised through disclosure to an unknown and unauthorized third-
21 party—an undoubtedly nefarious third-party that seeks to profit off this disclosure by defrauding
22 Representative Plaintiff and Class Members in the future. Representative Plaintiff and Class
23 Members have a continuing interest in ensuring that their information is and remains safe, and they 24 are entitled to injunctive and other equitable relief.

25 26 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

27 9. Jurisdiction is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1332 (diversity jurisdiction).
28 Specifically, this Court has subject matter and diversity jurisdiction over this action under 28

1 U.S.C. § 1332(d) because this is a class action where the amount in controversy exceeds the sum
 2 or value of $5 million, exclusive of interest and costs, there are more than 100 members in the 3 proposed class, and at least one other Class Member is a citizen of a state different from Defendant.

4 10. Supplemental jurisdiction to adjudicate issues pertaining to California state law is 5 proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §1367.

6 11. Defendant routinely conducts business in California, has sufficient minimum
 7 contacts in California and has intentionally availed itself of this jurisdiction by marketing,
 8 providing, and selling products/services, and by accepting and processing payments for those 9 products/services within California.

10 12. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1391 because the events that gave 11 rise to Representative Plaintiff's claims took place within the Northern District of California, and 12 Defendant does business in this Judicial District.

13 PLAINTIFF

14 13. Representative Plaintiff is an adult individual and, at all relevant times herein, a 15 resident of the State of California. Representative Plaintiff is a victim of the Data Breach.

16 14. Prior to the Data Breach, Representative Plaintiff purchased goods/services from 17 Defendant.

18 15. In connection with this purchase, Defendant collected PII and financial information
 19 from Representative Plaintiff. As a result, Representative Plaintiff's information was among the 20 data accessed by an unauthorized third-party in the Data Breach.

21 16. At all times herein relevant, Representative Plaintiff is and was a member of the 22 Classes.

23 17. As required in order to purchase goods/services from Defendant, Representative
 24 Plaintiff provided Defendant with highly sensitive personal and financial information.

25 18. Representative Plaintiff's PII was exposed in the Data Breach because Defendant
 26 stored and/or shared Representative Plaintiff's PII and financial information. Representative

1 Plaintiff's PII and financial information was within the possession and control of Defendant at the 2 time of the Data Breach.

3 19. Representative Plaintiff received a letter from Defendant, dated December 16,
4 2021, informing Representative Plaintiff that Representative Plaintiff's PII and/or financial 5 information was involved in the Data Breach (the "Notice"). The Notice explained that Defendant
6 detected unusual activity on its network and took steps to secure the systems, but not until an
7 unauthorized third-party gained access to Defendant's network and accessed Representative
8 Plaintiff's PII and financial information. While Defendant claims to have detected this breach as 9 early as August 12, 2021, it did not inform Representative Plaintiff prior to the Notice dated 10 December 16, 2021.

11 20. Representative Plaintiff has already spent and will continue to spend time dealing 12 with the consequences of the Data Breach. This includes, without limitation, time spent verifying
13 the legitimacy and impact of the Data Breach, exploring credit monitoring and identity theft 14 insurance options, self-monitoring her accounts, and seeking legal counsel regarding options for 15 remedying and/or mitigating the effects of the Data Breach. This time has been lost forever and 16 cannot be recaptured.

17 21. Representative Plaintiff suffered actual injury in the form of damages to and 18 diminution in the value of Representative Plaintiff's PII—a form of intangible property that 19 Representative Plaintiff entrusted to Defendant for the purpose of purchasing products/services, 20 which was compromised in and as a result of the Data Breach.

21 22. Representative Plaintiff suffered lost time, annoyance, interference, and 22 inconvenience as a result of the Data Breach and has anxiety and increased concerns for the loss
23 of privacy, as well as anxiety over the impact of cybercriminals accessing and using sensitive PII
24 and/or financial information.

25 23. Representative Plaintiff has suffered imminent and impending injury arising from 26 the substantially increased risk of fraud, identity theft, and misuse resulting from Representative
27 Plaintiff's PII and financial information, in combination with Representative Plaintiff's name,
28 being placed in the hands of unauthorized third-parties/criminals.

24. Representative Plaintiff has a continuing interest in ensuring that the PII and financial information, which, upon information and belief, remains backed up in Defendant's possession, is protected and safeguarded from future breaches.

DEFENDANT

25. Defendant Heirloom Roses, Inc. is an Oregon corporation with a principal place of business located at 24062 Riverside Drive NE, Saint Paul, Oregon 97137.

26. Defendant Heirloom Roses, Inc. is a rose nursery, which sells flowers, plants, gardening accessories and the like through its website to consumers across the United States.

27. The true names and capacities of persons or entities, whether individual, corporate, associate, or otherwise, who may be responsible for some of the claims alleged here are currently unknown to Representative Plaintiff. Representative Plaintiff will seek leave of court to amend this Complaint to reflect the true names and capacities of such other responsible parties when their identities become known.

CLASS ACTION ALLEGATIONS

28. Representative Plaintiff brings this action pursuant to the provisions of Rules 23(a), (b)(2), and (b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, on behalf of Representative Plaintiff and the following classes/subclass(es) (collectively, the "Classes"):

Nationwide Class:

"All individuals within the United States of America whose PII and/or financial information was exposed to unauthorized third-parties as a result of the data breach occurring on or around February 2021 through October 26, 2021."

California Subclass:

"All individuals within the State of California whose PII and/or financial information was exposed to unauthorized third-parties as a result of the data breach occurring on or around February 2021 through October 26, 2021."

29. Excluded from the Classes are the following individuals and/or entities: (a) Defendant and Defendant's parents, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers and directors, and any entity in which Defendant has a controlling interest; (b) all individuals who make a timely election to be

1 excluded from this proceeding using the correct protocol for opting out; (c) any and all federal,
 2 state or local governments, including but not limited to its departments, agencies, divisions,
 3 bureaus, boards, sections, groups, counsels and/or subdivisions; and (d) all judges assigned to hear
 4 any aspect of this litigation, as well as their immediate family members.

5 30. Representative Plaintiff reserves the right to request additional subclasses be added,
 6 as necessary, based on the types of PII and financial information that were compromised and/or 7 the nature of certain Class Members' relationship(s) to the Defendant. At present, collectively,
 8 Class Members include, inter alia, all persons within the United States whose data was accessed 9 in the Data Breach.

10 31. Representative Plaintiff reserves the right to amend the above definition in 11 subsequent pleadings and/or motions for class certification.

12 32. This action has been brought and may properly be maintained as a class action
 13 under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure Rule 23 because there is a well-defined community of 14 interest in the litigation and membership in the proposed classes is easily ascertainable.

15 a. Numerosity: A class action is the only available method for the fair and 16 efficient adjudication of this controversy. The members of the Plaintiff
 17 Classes are so numerous that joinder of all members is impractical, if not 18 impossible. Representative Plaintiff is informed and believe and, on that 19 basis, alleges that the total number of Class Members is in the hundreds of 20 thousands of individuals. Membership in the Classes will be determined by 21 analysis of Defendant's records.

22 b. Commonality: Representative Plaintiff and the Class Members share a 23 community of interests in that there are numerous common questions and 24 issues of fact and law which predominate over any questions and issues
 25 solely affecting individual members, including, but not necessarily limited 26 to:

27 1) Whether Defendant had a legal duty to Representative Plaintiff and 28 the Classes to exercise due care in collecting, storing, using and/or safeguarding their PII;

2) Whether Defendant knew or should have known of the susceptibility of its data security systems to a data breach;

3) Whether Defendant's security procedures and practices to protect its systems were reasonable in light of the measures recommended by data security experts;

4) Whether Defendant's failure to implement adequate data security measures allowed the Data Breach to occur;

COLE & VAN NOTE
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

OAKLAND, CA 94607
TEL: (510) 891-9800

5) Whether Defendant failed to comply with its own policies and applicable laws, regulations, and industry standards relating to data security;

6) Whether Defendant adequately, promptly, and accurately informed Representative Plaintiff and Class Members that their PII had been compromised;

7) How and when Defendant actually learned of the Data Breach;

8) Whether Defendant's conduct, including its failure to act, resulted in or was the proximate cause of the breach of its systems, resulting in the loss of the PII of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members;

9) Whether Defendant adequately addressed and fixed the vulnerabilities which permitted the Data Breach to occur;

10) Whether Defendant engaged in unfair, unlawful, or deceptive practices by failing to safeguard the PII of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members;

11) Whether Representative Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to actual and/or statutory damages and/or whether injunctive, corrective and/or declaratory relief and/or an accounting is/are appropriate as a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct;

12) Whether Representative Plaintiff and Class Members are entitled to restitution as a result of Defendant's wrongful conduct.

c. Typicality: Representative Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Plaintiff Classes. Representative Plaintiff and all members of the Plaintiff Classes sustained damages arising out of and caused by Defendant's common course of conduct in violation of law, as alleged herein. The same event and conduct that gave rise to Representative Plaintiff's claims are identical to those that give rise to the claims of every Class Member because Representative Plaintiff and Class Members alike had their Stored Data compromised in the same way by the same conduct of Defendant. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members face identical threats resulting from the resetting of their hard drives and/or access by cyber-criminals to the Stored Data maintained thereon.

d. Adequacy of Representation: Representative Plaintiff in this class action is an adequate representative of each of the Plaintiff Classes in that Representative Plaintiff has the same interest in the litigation of this case as the Class Members, is committed to vigorous prosecution of this case, and has retained competent counsel who are experienced in conducting litigation of this nature. Representative Plaintiff is not subject to any individual defenses unique from those conceivably applicable to other Class Members or the Classes in their entirety. Representative Plaintiff anticipate no management difficulties in this litigation. Representative Plaintiff and its counsel will fairly and adequately protect the interests of all Class Members.

e. Superiority of Class Action: The damages suffered by individual Class Members are significant but may be small relative to the enormous expense of individual litigation by each member. This makes or may make it impractical for members of the Plaintiff Classes to seek redress individually for the wrongful conduct alleged herein. Even if Class Members could afford such individual litigation, the court system could not. Should separate actions be brought or be required to be brought by each individual member of the Plaintiff Classes, the resulting multiplicity of lawsuits would cause undue hardship and expense for the Court and the litigants. The prosecution of separate actions would also create a risk of inconsistent rulings which might be dispositive of the interests of other Class Members who are not parties to the adjudications and/or may substantially impede their ability to adequately protect their interests. Individualized litigation increases the delay and expense to all parties, and to the court system, presented by the complex legal and factual issues of the case. By contrast, the class action device presents far fewer management difficulties and provides benefits of single adjudication, economy of scale, and comprehensive supervision by a single court.

33. Class certification is proper because the questions raised by this Complaint are of common or general interest affecting numerous persons, such that it is impracticable to bring all Class Members before the Court.

34. This class action is also appropriate for certification because Defendant has acted and/or has refused to act on grounds generally applicable to the Classes, thereby requiring the Court's imposition of uniform relief to ensure compatible standards of conduct toward Class Members and making final injunctive relief appropriate with respect to the Classes in their entirety. Defendant's policies challenged herein apply to and affect Class Members uniformly and Representative Plaintiff's challenge of these policies and conduct hinges on Defendant's conduct with respect to the Classes in their entirety, not on facts or law applicable only to the Representative Plaintiff.]

35. Unless a Class-wide injunction is issued, Defendant's violations may continue, and Defendant may continue to act unlawfully as set forth in this Complaint.

COMMON FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

The Cyberattack

36. In the course of the Data Breach, one or more unauthorized third-parties accessed Class Members' sensitive data including, but not limited to, full names and credit card information. Representative Plaintiff was among the individuals whose information was accessed in the Data Breach.

37. According to the Data Breach Notification, which Defendant filed with Office of the Maine Attorney General, 52,206 persons were affected by the Data Breach.²

38. Representative Plaintiff was provided the information detailed above upon receipt the Notice, dated December 16, 2021. Representative was not aware of the Data Breach—or even that Defendant was in possession of such data until receiving the Notice.

Defendant's Failed Response to the Breach

39. Not until roughly four months after they claim to have discovered the Data Breach did Defendant begin sending the Notice to persons whose PII and/or financial information Defendant confirmed was potentially compromised as a result of the Data Breach. The Notice provided basic details of the Data Breach and Defendant's recommended next steps.

40. The Notice included, inter alia, the claims that Defendant learned of the Data Breach on August 12, 2021, had taken steps to respond, and were continuing to investigate. It claimed that they took measures to contain the attack.

41. Defendant sent a sample notice of the data breach letter that mirrored the language of the Notice sent to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to the California Attorney General's Office on December 17, 2021.³

42. Upon information and belief, the unauthorized third-party cybercriminals gained access to Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information with the intent of engaging in misuse of the PII and financial information, including marketing and selling Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII.

43. Defendant had and continues to have obligations created by reasonable industry standards, common law, state statutory law, and its own assurances and representations to keep Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII confidential and to protect such PII from unauthorized access.

44. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members were required to provide their PII and financial information to Defendant with the reasonable expectation and mutual understanding that Defendant would comply with its obligations to keep such information confidential and secure from unauthorized access.

45. Despite this, Representative Plaintiff and the Class Members remain, even today, in the dark regarding what particular data was stolen, the particular malware used, and what steps are being taken, if any, to secure their PII and financial information going forward. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members are left to speculate as to the full impact of the Data Breach and how exactly Defendant intended to enhance its information security systems and monitoring capabilities so as to prevent further breaches.

46. Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information may end up for sale on the dark web, or simply fall into the hands of companies that will use the detailed PII and financial information for targeted marketing without the approval of Representative Plaintiff and/or Class Members. Either way, unauthorized individuals can now easily access the PII and/or financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

Defendant Collected/Stored Class Members' PII and Financial Information

47. Defendant acquired, collected, and stored and assured reasonable security over Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information.

48. To purchase its goods/services, Defendant required that Representative Plaintiff and Class Members provide them with their full names and credit card information.

49. By obtaining, collecting, and storing Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information, Defendant assumed legal and equitable duties and knew or should have known that they were thereafter responsible for protecting Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information from unauthorized disclosure.

50. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have taken reasonable steps to maintain the confidentiality of their PII and financial information. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members relied on Defendant to keep their PII and financial information confidential and

1 securely maintained, to use this information for business purposes only, and to make only
2 authorized disclosures of this information.

3 51. Defendant could have prevented the Data Breach by properly securing and 4 encrypting and/or more securely encrypting its servers generally, as well as Representative
5 Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information.

6 52. Defendant's negligence in safeguarding Representative Plaintiff's and Class
7 Members' PII and financial information is exacerbated by repeated warnings and alerts directed to 8 protecting and securing sensitive data, as evidenced by the trending data breach attacks in recent 9 years.

10 53. Due to the high-profile nature of many recent data breaches, Defendant was and/or 11 certainly should have been on notice and aware of such attacks occurring and, therefore, should 12 have assumed and adequately performed the duty of preparing for such an imminent attack. This 13 is especially true given that Defendant has a major online and presence and derives much of its 14 revenue from online sales.

15 54. Yet, despite the prevalence of public announcements of data breach and data
16 security compromises, Defendant failed to take appropriate steps to protect Representative
17 Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information from being compromised
18

19 Defendant Had an Obligation to Protect the Stolen Information

20 55. Defendant's failure to adequately secure Representative Plaintiff's and Class
21 Members' sensitive data breaches duties it owed Representative Plaintiff and Class Members
22 under statutory and common law. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members surrendered their 23 highly sensitive personal data to Defendant under the implied condition that Defendant would keep 24 it private and secure. Accordingly, Defendant also had an implied duty to safeguard their data, 25 independent of any statute.

26 56. In addition to its obligations under federal and state laws, Defendant owed a duty
27 to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to exercise reasonable care in obtaining, retaining,
28 securing, safeguarding, deleting, and protecting the PII and financial information in Defendant's possession from being compromised, lost, stolen, accessed, and misused by unauthorized persons. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to provide reasonable security, including consistency with industry standards and requirements, and to ensure that its computer systems, networks, and protocols adequately protected the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

57. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to design, maintain, and test its computer systems, servers and networks to ensure that the PII and financial information in its possession was adequately secured and protected.

58. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to create and implement reasonable data security practices and procedures to protect the PII and financial information in its possession, including not sharing information with other entities who maintained sub-standard data security systems.

59. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to implement processes that would detect a breach on its data security systems in a timely manner.

60. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to act upon data security warnings and alerts in a timely fashion.

61. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to disclose if its computer systems and data security practices were inadequate to safeguard individuals' PII and/or financial information from theft because such an inadequacy would be a material fact in the decision to entrust this PII and/or financial information to Defendant.

62. Defendant owed a duty of care to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members because they were foreseeable and probable victims of any inadequate data security practices.

63. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to encrypt and/or more reliably encrypt Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information and monitor user behavior and activity in order to identify possible threats.

Value of the Relevant Sensitive Information

64. The ramifications of Defendant's failure to keep secure Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information are long lasting and severe. Once PII and financial information is stolen, fraudulent use of that information and damage to victims may continue for years. Indeed, the PII and/or financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members was taken by hackers to engage in identity theft or to sell it to other criminals who will purchase the PII and/or financial information for that purpose. The fraudulent activity resulting from the Data Breach may not come to light for years.

65. These criminal activities have and will result in devastating financial and personal losses to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members. For example, it is believed that certain PII compromised in the 2017 Experian data breach was being used, three years later, by identity thieves to apply for COVID-19-related benefits in the state of Oklahoma. Such fraud will be an omnipresent threat for Representative Plaintiff and Class Members for the rest of their lives. They will need to remain constantly vigilant.

66. The FTC defines identity theft as "a fraud committed or attempted using the identifying information of another person without authority." The FTC describes "identifying information" as "any name or number that may be used, alone or in conjunction with any other information, to identify a specific person," including, among other things, "[n]ame, Social Security number, date of birth, official State or government issued driver's license or identification number, alien registration number, government passport number, employer or taxpayer identification number."

67. Identity thieves can use PII and financial information, such as that of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members which Defendant failed to keep secure, to perpetrate a variety of crimes that harm victims. For instance, identity thieves may commit various types of government fraud such as immigration fraud, obtaining a driver's license or identification card in the victim's name but with another's picture, using the victim's information to obtain government benefits, or filing a fraudulent tax return using the victim's information to obtain a fraudulent refund.

68. There may be a time lag between when harm occurs versus when it is discovered, and also between when PII and/or financial information is stolen and when it is used. According to the U.S. Government Accountability Office (“GAO”), which conducted a study regarding data breaches:

[L]aw enforcement officials told us that in some cases, stolen data may be held for up to a year or more before being used to commit identity theft. Further, once stolen data have been sold or posted on the Web, fraudulent use of that information may continue for years. As a result, studies that attempt to measure the harm resulting from data breaches cannot necessarily rule out all future harm.⁴

69. If cyber criminals manage to access to personally sensitive data—as they did here—there is no limit to the amount of fraud to which Defendant may have exposed Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

70. And data breaches are preventable.⁵ As Lucy Thompson wrote in the DATA BREACH AND ENCRYPTION HANDBOOK, “[i]n almost all cases, the data breaches that occurred could have been prevented by proper planning and the correct design and implementation of appropriate security solutions.”⁶ She added that “[o]rganizations that collect, use, store, and share sensitive personal data must accept responsibility for protecting the information and ensuring that it is not compromised”⁷

71. Most of the reported data breaches are a result of lax security and the failure to create or enforce appropriate security policies, rules, and procedures . . . Appropriate information security controls, including encryption, must be implemented and enforced in a rigorous and disciplined manner so that a data breach never occurs.⁸

72. Here, Defendant knew of the importance of safeguarding PII and financial information and of the foreseeable consequences that would occur if Representative Plaintiff’s and Class Members’ PII and financial information was stolen, including the significant costs that

3 should have known, that the development and use of such protocols were necessary to fulfill its
4 statutory and common law duties to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members. Defendant's
5 failure to do so is, therefore, intentional, willful, reckless, and/or grossly negligent.

6 73. Defendant disregarded the rights of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members by,
7 inter alia, (i) intentionally, willfully, recklessly, or negligently failing to take adequate and 8 reasonable measures to ensure that its network servers were protected against unauthorized 9 intrusions; (ii) failing to disclose that it did not have adequately robust security protocols and 10 training practices in place to adequately safeguard Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members'
11 PII and/or financial information; (iii) failing to take standard and reasonably available steps to 12 prevent the Data Breach; (iv) concealing the existence and extent of the Data Breach for an 13 unreasonable duration of time; and (v) failing to provide Representative Plaintiff and Class
14 Members prompt and accurate notice of the Data Breach.

16 FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Negligence
(On behalf of the Nationwide Class)
17

18 74. Each and every allegation of the preceding paragraphs is incorporated in this cause
19 of action with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

20 75. At all times herein relevant, Defendant owed Representative Plaintiff and Class
21 Members a duty of care, inter alia, to act with reasonable care to secure and safeguard their PII
22 and financial information and to use commercially reasonable methods to do so. Defendant took 23 on this obligation upon accepting and storing the PII and financial information of Representative
24 Plaintiff and Class Members in its computer systems and on its networks.

25 76. Among these duties, Defendant was expected:

- 26 a. to exercise reasonable care in obtaining, retaining, securing, safeguarding,
27 deleting and protecting the PII and financial information in its possession;
28

- b. to protect Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information using reasonable and adequate security procedures and systems that were/are compliant with industry-standard practices;
- c. to implement processes to quickly detect the Data Breach and to timely act on warnings about data breaches; and
- d. to promptly notify Representative Plaintiff and Class Members of any data breach, security incident, or intrusion that affected or may have affected their PII and financial information.

77. Defendant knew that the PII and financial information was private and confidential and should be protected as private and confidential and, thus, Defendant owed a duty of care not to subject Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to an unreasonable risk of harm because they were foreseeable and probable victims of any inadequate security practices.

78. Defendant knew, or should have known, of the risks inherent in collecting and storing PII and financial information, the vulnerabilities of its data security systems, and the importance of adequate security. Defendant knew about numerous, well-publicized data breaches.

79. Defendant knew, or should have known, that its data systems and networks did not adequately safeguard Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information.

80. Only Defendant was in the position to ensure that its systems and protocols were sufficient to protect the PII and financial information that Representative Plaintiff and Class Members had entrusted to it.

81. Defendant breached its duties to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to provide fair, reasonable, or adequate computer systems and data security practices to safeguard the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

82. Because Defendant knew that a breach of its' systems could damage millions of individuals, including Representative Plaintiff and Class Members, Defendant had a duty to adequately protect those data systems and the PII and financial information contained thereon.

83. Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' willingness to entrust Defendant with their PII and financial information was predicated on the understanding that Defendant would take adequate security precautions. Moreover, only Defendant had the ability to protect its systems

1 and the PII and financial information they stored on them from attack. Thus, Defendant had a
 2 special relationship with Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

3 84. Defendant also had independent duties under state and federal laws that required
 4 Defendant to reasonably safeguard Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and 5 financial information and promptly notify them about the Data Breach. These "independent duties"
 6 are untethered to any contract between Defendant and Representative Plaintiff and/or the 7 remaining Class Members.

8 85. Defendant breached its general duty of care to Representative Plaintiff and Class
 9 Members in, but not necessarily limited to, the following ways:

- 10 a. by failing to provide fair, reasonable, or adequate computer systems and 11 data security practices to safeguard the PII and financial information of 12 Representative Plaintiff and Class Members;
- 13 b. by failing to timely and accurately disclose that Representative Plaintiff's
 14 and Class Members' PII and financial information had been improperly 15 acquired or accessed;
- 16 c. by failing to adequately protect and safeguard the PII and financial 17 information by knowingly disregarding standard information security
 18 principles, despite obvious risks, and by allowing unmonitored and 19 unrestricted access to unsecured PII and financial information;
- 20 d. by failing to provide adequate supervision and oversight of the PII and 21 financial information with which they were and are entrusted, in spite of the 22 known risk and foreseeable likelihood of breach and misuse, which 23 permitted an unknown third-party to gather PII and financial information of 24 Representative Plaintiff and Class Members, misuse the PII and 25 intentionally disclose it to others without consent.
- 26 e. by failing to adequately train its employees to not store PII and financial 27 information longer than absolutely necessary;
- 28 f. by failing to consistently enforce security policies aimed at protecting Representative Plaintiff's and the Class Members' PII and financial information;
- g. by failing to implement processes to quickly detect data breaches, security incidents, or intrusions; and
- h. by failing to encrypt Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information and monitor user behavior and activity in order to identify possible threats.

86. Defendant's willful failure to abide by these duties was wrongful, reckless and grossly negligent in light of the foreseeable risks and known threats.

87. As a proximate and foreseeable result of Defendant's grossly negligent conduct, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages and are at imminent risk of additional harms and damages (as alleged above).

88. The law further imposes an affirmative duty on Defendant to timely disclose the unauthorized access and theft of the PII and financial information to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members so that they could and/or still can take appropriate measures to mitigate damages, protect against adverse consequences and thwart future misuse of their PII and financial information.

89. Defendant breached its duty to notify Representative Plaintiff and Class Members of the unauthorized access by waiting months after learning of the Data Breach to notify Representative Plaintiff and Class Members and then by failing and continuing to fail to provide Representative Plaintiff and Class Members sufficient information regarding the breach. To date, Defendant has not provided sufficient information to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members regarding the extent of the unauthorized access and continues to breach its disclosure obligations to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

90. Further, through its failure to provide timely and clear notification of the Data Breach to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members, Defendant prevented Representative Plaintiff and Class Members from taking meaningful, proactive steps to secure their PII and financial information.

91. There is a close causal connection between Defendant's failure to implement security measures to protect the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members and the harm suffered, or risk of imminent harm suffered by Representative Plaintiff and Class Members. Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information was accessed as the proximate result of Defendant's failure to exercise reasonable care in safeguarding such PII and financial information by adopting, implementing, and maintaining appropriate security measures.

92. Defendant's wrongful actions, inactions, and omissions constituted (and continues to constitute) common law negligence.

93. The damages Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered (as alleged above) and will suffer were and are the direct and proximate result of Defendant's grossly negligent conduct.

94. Additionally, 15 U.S.C. §45 (FTC Act, Section 5) prohibits "unfair . . . practices in or affecting commerce," including, as interpreted and enforced by the FTC, the unfair act or practice by businesses, such as Defendant, of failing to use reasonable measures to protect PII and financial information. The FTC publications and orders described above also form part of the basis of Defendant's duty in this regard.

95. Defendant violated 15 U.S.C. §45 by failing to use reasonable measures to protect PII and financial information and not complying with applicable industry standards, as described in detail herein. Defendant's conduct was particularly unreasonable given the nature and amount of PII and financial information it obtained and stored and the foreseeable consequences of the immense damages that would result to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

96. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence and negligence per se, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will suffer injury, including but not limited to: (i) actual identity theft; (ii) the loss of the opportunity of how their PII and financial information is used; (iii) the compromise, publication, and/or theft of their PII and financial information; (iv) out-of-pocket expenses associated with the prevention, detection, and recovery from identity theft, tax fraud, and/or unauthorized use of their PII and financial information; (v) lost opportunity costs associated with effort expended and the loss of productivity addressing and attempting to mitigate the actual and future consequences of the Data Breach, including but not limited to, efforts spent researching how to prevent, detect, contest, and recover from embarrassment and identity theft; (vi) the continued risk to their PII and financial information, which may remain in Defendant's possession and is subject to further unauthorized disclosures so long as Defendant fail to undertake appropriate and adequate measures to protect Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information in its continued possession; (vii) and future costs in terms of time, effort, and money that will be expended to prevent, detect, contest, and repair the impact of the PII and financial information compromised as a result of the Data Breach for the remainder of the lives of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

97. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence and negligence per se, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will continue to suffer other forms of injury and/or harm, including, but not limited to, anxiety, emotional distress, loss of privacy, and other economic and non-economic losses.

98. Additionally, as a direct and proximate result of Defendant's negligence and negligence per se, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will suffer the continued risks of exposure of their PII and financial information, which remain in Defendant's possession and are subject to further unauthorized disclosures so long as Defendant fails to undertake appropriate and adequate measures to protect the PII and financial information in its continued possession.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Invasion of Privacy
(On behalf of the Nationwide Class)

99. Each and every allegation of the preceding paragraphs is incorporated in this cause of action with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

100. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members had a legitimate expectation of privacy to their PII and financial information and were entitled to the protection of this information against disclosure to unauthorized third-parties.

101. Defendant owed a duty to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to keep their PII and financial information confidential.

102. Defendant failed to protect and released to unknown and unauthorized third-parties the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

103. Defendant allowed unauthorized and unknown third-parties access to and examination of the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members, by way of Defendant's failure to protect the PII and financial information.

104. The unauthorized release to, custody of, and examination by unauthorized third-parties of the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members is highly offensive to a reasonable person.

105. The unauthorized intrusion was into a place or thing which was private and is entitled to be private. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members disclosed their PII and financial information to Defendant as part of obtaining services from Defendant, but privately with an intention that the PII and financial information would be kept confidential and would be protected from unauthorized disclosure. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members were reasonable in their belief that such information would be kept private and would not be disclosed without their authorization.

106. The Data Breach constitutes an intentional interference with Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' interests in solitude or seclusion, either as to their persons or as to their private affairs or concerns, of a kind that would be highly offensive to a reasonable person.

107. Defendant acted with a knowing state of mind when they permitted the Data Breach to occur because it was with actual knowledge that its information security practices were inadequate and insufficient.

108. Because Defendant acted with this knowing state of mind, they had notice and knew the inadequate and insufficient information security practices would cause injury and harm to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

109. As a proximate result of the above acts and omissions of Defendant, the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members was disclosed to third-parties without authorization, causing Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to suffer damages.

110. Unless and until enjoined, and restrained by order of this Court, Defendant's wrongful conduct will continue to cause great and irreparable injury to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members in that the PII and financial information maintained by Defendant can be viewed, distributed, and used by unauthorized persons for years to come. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have no adequate remedy at law for the injuries in that a judgment for

1 monetary damages will not end the invasion of privacy for Representative Plaintiff and/or Class
2 Members.

4 THIRD CLAIM FOR RELIEF
5 Breach of Confidence
6 (On behalf of the Nationwide Class)

7 111. Each and every allegation of the preceding paragraphs is incorporated in this cause
8 of action with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

9 112. At all times during Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' interactions with 10 Defendant, Defendant was fully aware of the confidential nature of the PII and financial 11 information that Representative Plaintiff and Class Members provided to them.

12 113. As alleged herein and above, Defendant's relationship with Representative Plaintiff
13 and the Classes was governed by promises and expectations that Representative Plaintiff and Class
14 Members' PII and financial information would be collected, stored, and protected in confidence, 15 and would not be accessed by, acquired by, appropriated by, disclosed to, encumbered by,
16 exfiltrated by, released to, stolen by, used by, and/or viewed by unauthorized third-parties.

17 114. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members provided their respective PII and 18 financial information to Defendant with the explicit and implicit understandings that Defendant
19 would protect and not permit the PII and financial information to be accessed by, acquired by,
20 appropriated by, disclosed to, encumbered by, exfiltrated by, released to, stolen by, used by, and/or 21 viewed by unauthorized third-parties.

22 115. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members also provided their PII and financial 23 information to Defendant with the explicit and implicit understanding that Defendant would take 24 precautions to protect their PII and financial information from unauthorized access, acquisition, 25 appropriation, disclosure, encumbrance, exfiltration, release, theft, use, and/or viewing, such as 26 following basic principles of protecting its networks and data systems.

27 116. Defendant voluntarily received, in confidence, Representative Plaintiff's and Class 28 Members' PII and financial information with the understanding that the PII and financial information would not be accessed by, acquired by, appropriated by, disclosed to, encumbered by,

1 exfiltrated by, released to, stolen by, used by and/or viewed by the public or any unauthorized
2 third-parties.

3 117. Due to Defendant's failure to prevent, detect, and avoid the Data Breach from 4 occurring by, inter alia, not following best information security practices to secure Representative
5 Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information, Representative Plaintiff's and Class
6 Members' PII and financial information was accessed by, acquired by, appropriated by, disclosed
7 to, encumbered by, exfiltrated by, released to, stolen by, used by and/or viewed by unauthorized
8 third-parties beyond Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' confidence, and without their 9 express permission.

10 118. As a direct and proximate cause of Defendant's actions and/or omissions,
11 Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered damages, as alleged herein.

12 119. But for Defendant's failure to maintain and protect Representative Plaintiff's and 13 Class Members' PII and financial information in violation of the parties' understanding of 14 confidence, their PII and financial information would not have been accessed by, acquired by,
15 appropriated by, disclosed to, encumbered by, exfiltrated by, released to, stolen by, used by and/or 16 viewed by unauthorized third-parties. The Data Breach was the direct and legal cause of the misuse
17 of Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information, as well as the 18 resulting damages.

19 120. The injury and harm Representative Plaintiff and Class Members suffered and will 20 continue to suffer was the reasonably foreseeable result of Defendant's unauthorized misuse of 21 Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information. Defendant knew its 22 data systems and protocols for accepting and securing Representative Plaintiff's and Class
23 Members' PII and financial information had security and other vulnerabilities that placed 24 Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' PII and financial information in jeopardy.

25 121. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant's breaches of confidence,
26 Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have suffered and will suffer injury, as alleged herein,
27 including, but not limited to, (a) actual identity theft; (b) the compromise, publication, and/or theft
28 of their PII and financial information; (c) out-of-pocket expenses associated with the prevention,

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Information Practices Act of 1977

127. As a result of these failures, Representative Plaintiff and California Subclass Members have suffered (and will continue to suffer) economic damages and other injury and actual harm in the form of, inter alia, (i) an imminent, immediate and continuing increased risk of identity theft, identity fraud—risks justifying expenditures for protective and remedial services for which they are entitled to compensation; (ii) invasion of privacy; (iii) breach of the confidentiality of their PII and financial information; (iv) deprivation of the value of their PII and financial information, for which there is a well-established national and international market; and/or (v) the financial and temporal cost of monitoring their credit, monitoring their financial accounts and mitigating their damages.

132. Defendant solicited and invited Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to provide their PII and financial information as part of Defendant's regular business practices. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members accepted Defendant's offers and provided their PII and financial information to Defendant.

133. As a condition of being direct customers of Defendant, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members provided and entrusted their PII and financial information to Defendant. In so doing, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members entered into implied contracts with Defendant by which Defendant agreed to safeguard and protect such non-public information, to keep such information secure and confidential, and to timely and accurately notify Representative Plaintiff and Class Members if their data had been breached and compromised or stolen.

134. A meeting of the minds occurred when Representative Plaintiff and Class Members agreed to, and did, provide their PII and financial information to Defendant, in exchange for, amongst other things, the protection of their PII and financial information.

135. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members fully performed their obligations under the implied contracts with Defendant.

136. Defendant breached the implied contracts it made with Representative Plaintiff and Class Members by failing to safeguard and protect their PII and financial information and by failing to provide timely and accurate notice to them that their PII and financial information was compromised as a result of the Data Breach.

(On behalf of the Nationwide Class)

138. Each and every allegation of the preceding paragraphs is incorporated in this cause of action with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

139. Every contract has an implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. This implied covenant is an independent duty and may be breached even when there is no breach of a contract's actual and/or express terms.

140. Representative Plaintiff and Class Members have complied with and performed all conditions of their contracts with Defendant.

141. Defendant breached the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing by failing to maintain adequate computer systems and data security practices to safeguard PII and financial information, failing to timely and accurately disclose the Data Breach to Representative Plaintiff and Class Members and continued acceptance of PII and financial information and storage of other personal information after Defendant knew, or should have known, of the security vulnerabilities of the systems that were exploited in the Data Breach.

142. Defendant acted in bad faith and/or with malicious motive in denying Representative Plaintiff and Class Members the full benefit of their bargains as originally intended by the parties, thereby causing them injury in an amount to be determined at trial.

146. Representative Plaintiff, the California Subclass Members, and Defendant are each a "person" or "persons" within the meaning of § 17201 of the California Unfair Competition Law ("UCL").

147. The knowing conduct of Defendant, as alleged herein, constitutes an unlawful and/or fraudulent business practice, as set forth in California Business & Professions Code §§17200-17208. Specifically, Defendant conducted business activities while failing to comply with the legal mandates cited herein. Such violations include, but are not necessarily limited to:

- a. failure to maintain adequate computer systems and data security practices to safeguard PII and financial information;
- b. failure to disclose that its computer systems and data security practices were inadequate to safeguard PII and financial information from theft;
- c. failure to timely and accurately disclose the Data Breach to Representative Plaintiff and California Subclass Members;

148. Defendant knew or should have known that its computer systems and data security practices were inadequate to safeguard the PII and financial information of Representative Plaintiff and California Subclass Members, deter hackers, and detect a breach within a reasonable time and that the risk of a data breach was highly likely.

150. Defendant's knowing failure to adopt policies in accordance with and/or adhere to these laws, all of which are binding upon and burdensome to Defendant's competitors, engenders an unfair competitive advantage for Defendant, thereby constituting an unfair business practice, as set forth in California Business & Professions Code §§17200-17208.

151. Defendant has clearly established a policy of accepting a certain amount of collateral damage, as represented by the damages to Representative Plaintiff and California Subclass Members herein alleged, as incidental to its business operations, rather than accept the alternative costs of full compliance with fair, lawful and honest business practices ordinarily borne by responsible competitors of Defendant and as set forth in legislation and the judicial record.

152. The UCL is, by its express terms, a cumulative remedy, such that remedies under its provisions can be awarded in addition to those provided under separate statutory schemes and/or common law remedies, such as those alleged in the other causes of action of this Complaint. See Cal. EIGHTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF
Unjust Enrichment
(On behalf of the Nationwide Class)

154. Each and every allegation of the preceding paragraphs is incorporated in this cause of action with the same force and effect as though fully set forth herein.

155. By its wrongful acts and omissions described herein, Defendant has obtained a benefit by unduly taking advantage of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

156. Defendant, prior to and at the time Representative Plaintiff and Class Members entrusted their PII and financial information to Defendant for the purpose of purchasing products/services from Defendant, caused Representative Plaintiff and Class Members to reasonably believe that Defendant would keep such PII and financial information secure.

157. Defendant was aware, or should have been aware, that reasonable consumers would have wanted their PII and financial information kept secure and would not have contracted with Defendant, directly or indirectly, had they known that Defendant's information systems were substandard for that purpose.

158. Defendant was also aware that, if the substandard condition of and vulnerabilities in its information systems were disclosed, it would negatively affect Representative Plaintiff's and Class Members' decisions to seek services therefrom.

159. Defendant failed to disclose facts pertaining to its substandard information systems, defects and vulnerabilities therein before Representative Plaintiff and Class Members made their decisions to make purchases, engage in commerce therewith, and seek services or information. Instead, Defendant suppressed and concealed such information. By concealing and suppressing that information, Defendant denied Representative Plaintiff and Class Members the ability to make a rational and informed purchasing decision and took undue advantage of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members.

160. Defendant was unjustly enriched at the expense of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members. Defendant received profits, benefits, and compensation, in part, at the expense of Representative Plaintiff and Class Members. By contrast, Representative Plaintiff and Class Members did not receive the benefit of their bargain because they paid for products/services that did not satisfy the purposes for which they bought/sought them.

161. Since Defendant's profits, benefits, and other compensation were obtained by improper means, Defendant is not legally or equitably entitled to retain any of the benefits, compensation or profits they realized from these transactions.
